PEACE

There is endeath springing up at the North a peace party which bids fair to be somewhat foundable if the present regime of the war conparacretites, we do not wonster ut, but that there should be any to sympathise with their yel. Now we contend, and think every loyal tions, that the South would demand, or the things is atterly Litopiani, impracticable and Co. as their masters, and abundoning all they peace by compromise, either to let the South go, or otherwise, then we should be met by objections that are insurmountable-entirely so. The following questions from that able and loyal, though democratic paper, the Boston Hearth, embody some formidable objections. which it would pazale even a "Philadelphia lawyer" to meet suitabetorily to

"Let us sindpose, for argument's sake, that if an armistice should be agreed upon between the contending armies, with the view of negofixting terms of peace. the South would claim a separation and all of the slave States as their the States of Missonii. Kentucky, Tennessee. Arkan-as, Louisiana, Maryland and Delaware
—States which are already in our possession? and, what is more, would the North be winted to give up Washington to the fender mercies of lower left end.

Fives—likeness of Hamilton on right end; stationary continue vinories on left end. North Carolina and Mississippi are partly ours. and shall we surreader them and throw away all that has been done to restore what is the rightful inheritance of the nation?
